PBS unveils its 1994-'95 schedule

BY CATHERINE HINMAN
Orlando Sentinel

ORLANDO, Fla.

TRAVEL to Africa with Oscar-winning actor Anthony Hopkins, explore virtual reality with Jeff Goldblum and climb aboard a magic school bus with Lily Tomlin.

These are but a few of the adventures that await public television viewers in the 1994-'95 season.

For the 13th season of "Nature," Hopkins will take a safari to Africa for a special on lions. "Nature" also will present a five-part miniseries on the seafaring people of Polynesia titled "Nomads of the Wind."

Highlights of 20th season of "Nova" on PBS include documentaries on the Northridge earthquake, the lives of Brazilian cannibals and a child who could neither walk nor talk after being imprisoned in her room for 13 years.

"Masterpiece Theater" will kick off its season with "The Blue Boy," which is set in Scotland and stars Academy Award-winning actress Emma Thompson as a woman haunted by the vision of a dead child. "Great Performances" will feature Paddy Chayefsky's "The Mother."

History buffs can look forward to "FDR," a 4½-hour series on Franklin Delano Roosevelt for "The American Experience." Also, from the producers of PBS's "The Kennedys" comes a four-hour series on Britain's royal House of Windsor.

PBS is adding some new programs to its schedule in hopes of drawing younger viewers.

Those include — in a departure from the usual one-hour PBS format — "Future Quest," a half-hour pop-culture-meets-science show with Goldblum as host. PBS is also offering up a half-hour trivia game show called "Thi Twice."

PBS executives say ratings preschool programs, with help of "Barney," have increased 110 percent over the past three years. Building on that audience, PBS this fall will introduce "The Magic School Bus" and "Bill N the Science Guy" for school-age children.

"The Magic School Bus" PBS's first fully animated series and features Tomlin as the voice of teacher Ms. Frizzle.
